1848
GALINA SHOR

ROŚE

Dry Rosé Wine - Judean Hills

SECOND GENERATION

The second generation of the "Galina Shor" winery lineage lived in the Jewish Quarter in the Old City of Jerusalem. Born in Zefat, Rosa was an entrepreneur and woman of many talents, who founded the first retail wine bar in Israel. The store, called "Khamra Rosa", which is Aramaic for "Rosa's Winery", was active in the Muslim Quarter of the Old City, at the Cotton Market near the Temple Mount. Under Rosa's management the store prospered and became a magnet for local residents.