Rose Wine

M SERIES

רוזה

Psagot's Rose is a blend of red grape varietals. The grapes are harvested from vineyards located in the northern Jerusalem Mountains at a height of 700 meters. With a very clean and fresh flavor, the wine will pair nicely with Mediterranean cuisine.

TERRIOR

A "sense of place", Terroir represents the environmental conditions (soil, climate) in which grapes are grown that give a wine its unique flavor. Psagot wines strive to represent the unique terroir of the Jerusalem Mountains.

COIN

Is a replica of a coin from the period of the "Great Revolt" (66-73 CE) which was discovered while excavating the cave that would become the Winery's barrel room. The inscription is of an Amphora - an ancient vessel for wine storage.
