

NADIV

WINERY

This wine is endowed with a deep purple color and a spicy, toasted nose, thanks to its 16 months of aging in French oak barrels. The tannins are present, but well-integrated. A highly expressive finish is driven by a lovely balance between the juicy fruit and the texture. This wine is made to withstand the test of time, to delight connoisseurs of great wines.

The nose is brimming with aromas of black currants and figs. The grapes have been carefully selected to impart a tightly-knit structure and a pleasant jammy texture. This wine is one of the noble cuvées of the Nadiv range; 18 months of aging in French oak barrels rounds out a wine that is complex and elegant.
