

GLENCADAM

AGED 10 YEARS

Opened in 1825, just one year after distilling on a large scale was legalised, the Glencadam Distillery continues to produce its rather delicate Single Malt Scotch Whisky in the same fashion it did in 1825.

This expression has been bottled at 46%vol to retain the whisky's unique and natural characteristics and subtlety of taste, and, by not chill-filtering this whisky it ensures that the aromatic components in the whisky are preserved to enhance presence and flavour.

No caramel colouring has been added to this single malt so that the naturalness of the whisky from the cask can be enjoyed to the full.
